Florida Citrus and Vegetable Crops Lost

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP) — Many vest hands abandoned winter-killed Florida vegetable farms and streamed into the citrus groves today in a frantic effort to salvage something from the state's worst freeze since 1889.

For fruit growers, paradoxically, a prospect of rising temperatures became a threat now that cold weather has frozen their oranges and grapefruit. Their hope lay in a quick harvest of some of the citrus to convert to juice before relaxation of the cold wave deteriorated the frozen fruit.

Temperatures were expected to go as low as 17 degrees today, with warming forecast tonight.
The Florida Citrus Commission scheduled a meeting to assess damage and consider regulations on use of frost-nipped fruit. State Agriculture Commissioner Doyle E. Conner said ice had formed in 75 to 100 per cent of citrus in Florida except at Fort Pierce, Stuart and the lower East Coast.

Gov. Farris Bryant planned a flight to Lakeland to look into the citrus damage situation.

Bryant told a Boca Raton meeting of travel agents Thursday night: "It looks as if the vegetable crop is wiped out for now." Florida's rich soil and normally warm sunshine can produce another vegetable crop in about six weeks.

Florida Citrus Mutual, big growers cooperative, estimated that despite smudge fires, machines to stir up the air to prevent frost and other efforts to save the citrus crop—which is central Florida's economic mainstay—more fruit was frozen than in 1957-8. That year, 30 million boxes of citrus were lost and 30,000 trees killed.

U.S. Weather Bureau and Florida Agricultural Experiment Station forecasters said that tonight would see some moderation of the cold snap that sent the mercury Thursday to 10 degrees at Tallahassee, 11 at Ocala, 12 at Jacksonville and an all-time Tampa low of 10.

Jacksonville's December record cold strained the heating facilities of homes.
Miami's game enough to get out of a warm bed found going to work an uncomfortable and harrowing experience.

They ground automobile starters and gunned engines to keep them alive for the first few blocks. Many showed up at their jobs in mothball-fragrant, out-of-style overcoats, caps and gloves which they brought south with them and hadn't used since their arrival.

Tax on Admissions

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The attorney general's office ruled Thursday that the state's three-per cent sales tax should be collected on admissions to school athletic events. Chester Mattox of Mountainburg, superintendent of schools, requested the ruling, which said the tax is applicable to paid and complimentary tickets, dues or fees of any kind.

Car, School Bus Hit, Six Hurt

MALVERN, Ark. (AP) — A car and a school bus collided near Malvern Thursday, injuring five children slightly and the driver of the car seriously.

The bus driver collapsed at his home this morning and was hospitalized.

James Garrett, 19, of Malvern driver of the car, was in critical condition in a Malvern hospital today.

The five children, who suffered bruises on the face and body, were treated at a Malvern hospital Thursday and released.

Police said the car driven by Garrett hit the bus head-on on Military Road two miles north of Malvern. Garrett was pinned in his car and a wrecker had to be called to pry the wreckage loose so he could be freed.

The injured children were Ervin Golden, 13, Edwin Ervin, 7, twins Connie and Ronnie Holliman, 14, and their sister Charlotte, 13, all of Route 3 Malvern. They were being taken home from a Malvern elementary school. The other 2 children on the bus escaped injury. Officers said the bus driver, Jess Reynolds, 45, was shaken up but was not hospitalized immediately after the wreck.

Cotton Issue Goes Before Committee

By GORDON BROWN

WASHINGTON (AP) — A House Agriculture Subcommittee continues today its hearing on the vexing problem of drafting legislation to make U.S. cotton competitive in domestic and foreign markets and yet not cut the income of the cotton farmer.

Headed by Rep. E. C. Gathings, D-Ark., the subcommittee opened the hearing Thursday in an effort to get an early start on a bill it hopes to push through Congress next year in time to apply to the 1963 crop.

Witnesses outlined various facets of the cotton problem. Several suggested the solution may be in some sort of a trade incentive or equalization payment, probably a program involving issuance of payment-in-kind certificates.

George C. Courtright, Stoneville, Miss., representing the Delta Council, urged some equalization payment be made "at the stage in normal marketing channels most remote from the grower." Presumably this would be the manufacturer. He suggested this could be an "equalization payment - in - kind certificate program."

Caffey Robertson, Memphis, of the American Cotton Shippers Association, urged "adoption of a one-price competitive system through payment-in-kind certificates upon the entry of the cotton into the channels of trade." Presumably this would be at the stage where the grower sold to the gin.

U.S. Trying to Avert Ship Strike

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government called in union and management negotiators today in an effort to avert an East and Gulf Coast shipping strike on Christmas Eve.

Dock workers who struck four days in early October are threatening a new walkout after a current 80-day emergency strike court injunction expires on Dec.
23. Negotiators are in complete deadlock with the deadline only nine days away.

Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz, calling an afternoon meeting, advised both sides "the national interest must be considered more important than the bargaining position in which each of you seems so firmly frozen."

The dispute is over a new contract between the AFL-CIO International Longshoremen's Association (ILA) and shipping and stevedoring firms handling pier cargo at ports from Maine to Texas.
Thousands of longshoremen are involved.

The ILA has rejected an employer offer to raise longshoremen's wages by 27 cents an hour over a three-year contract period.
The union has refused to negotiate further until the companies withdraw their own proposals to reduce sizes of pier gangs and allow greater flexibility of manpower.

The longshoremen presently earn $2.02 an hour.

MOST CAN BE SALVAGED — Johnny Brooks, an employee of the Sierra Grain Co., in Topeka, Kan., examines the wreckage of a grain storage tank that collapsed and spilled a million bushels of wheat on the ground. Officials estimate that 95 per cent of the grain can be salvaged.

CAMPAIGNER? — All the earmarks of a political campaigner is shown here as 7 year old Sherry Atkinson of Fort Worth, Texas, hides her face and blushes after being kissed on the cheek by Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson. The Vice President is on a two-day visit to his home state.

S. Security Increases January 1

Otis A. Blackwood, social security district manager, announced today that this office has on hand copies of a printed explanation of the social security tax increase scheduled for January 1, 1963.

The explanation is available upon request to the Texarkana social security district office, and Blackwood noted that a number of employers have already ordered copies to enclose with the employees' pay checks on the first pay day in January.

Starting with the first pay in January 1963, the worker's social security deduction will be increased by one-half of one percent on the first $4800 of annual wages. With this increase, the amount of social security tax will be 3 1/2 per cent for an employee, with a matching amount contributed by the employer.

Mr. Blackwood said that employers and the general public may obtain printed copies of "An Explanation of Your Social Security Contribution" by visiting, phoning, or writing the social security district office at Tex-arkana. The telephone number is 792-2735.

Employers may also wish to request copies of the new Social Security Employee Tax Table for the convenience of their payroll offices.

Two Injured in Truck Wreck

Ten miles south of Highway 29 yesterday a Southwest Packing Co. truck driven by James Wyatt, 24, Negro went out of control and into a ditch.

The driver sustained face and head lacerations. A companion, Ernest Duffie, Negro received face and head injuries and an injury to his right leg. Wyatt was treated and released. An Oakerest ambulance took both to a local hospital.

The accident was investigated by State Trooper Brewster.

Local Band Does Well at District Meet

At the annual district twirling festival was held in Arkadelphia Both junior and senior high majorettes, drum majors, and other twirlers attended from schools through out the district.
The following majorettes attended from Hope.

Senior High Division II: Mary Beth Allen, Catherine Gladney, Sara Gordon, Cynthia Collier.

Senior High Division III: Sharon Faris.

Senior Ensemble Division II:
Mary Beth Allen, Ruth Ann Mohan, Catherine Gladney, Gayle Williams, Sharon Faris, Cynthia Collier, Julianna Fenwick, Sara Gordon.

Junior High Division I: Linda Parsons, Gayle Williams, Robyn Formby, Julianna Fenwick.

Junior High Division II: Sandy Barbarotto, Martha McLelland, Pat Walton, Donna Byers, Linda Miller, Ruth Wylie.

Junior Trios Division III: Ruth Ann Wylie, Linda Miller, Sandy Barbarotto.

Jr. Trios Division II: Gayle Williams, Linda Parsons, Julianna Fenwick.

Junior Ensemble Division II:
Robyn Formby, Pat Walton, Donna Byers, Linda Miller, Linda Parsons, Martha McLelland, Sandy Barbarotto.

Hope had a fine turn-out of twirlers at the district festival.
All worked hard and made top divisions.

Saturday those who made I and II travel to Camden for the state festival. I'm sure they will again make Hope proud of their fine twirlers and band.

JFK to Make Talk for Tax Slash Tonight

By HARRY KELLY

WASHINGTON (AP) — Arnie powerful new urgings for a big tax cut next year, President Kenedy travels to New York to deliver a major speech tonight which he promised would give some details of the tax program he will propose to Congress.

The President will address the Economic Club of New York at 8:30 p.m. EST and then for 30 minutes will field questions fired from the floor.

Both the speech and the question-and-answer period will be taped for broadcast later on radio and television.

The President got some strong support Thursday for a 1963 tax reduction—a plan that has run into opposition from some key congressional leaders.

The business-financed Committee for Economic Development called for a $-billion income tax cut with the greatest benefits going to high-income bracket individuals and corporations.

In a formal policy statement the committee also urged a second and later reduction of $5 billion—if Congress and the administration can hold federal spending at present levels.

This tax package, the CED said, would lead to "higher rates of production, employment, investment and growth."

It declared that although the immediate result of the tax changes might be larger budget deficits, the long-term result would be budget surpluses because the government would bring in greater revenue from a speeded-up economy.

Here is how the first stages of the CED's proposed tax program, which it said should be retroactive to Jan. 1, 1963 would work:

All individual income tax rates would be reduced at least 8 per cent and the maximum rate would be reduced from 91 per cent to 70 per cent.

The present 52 per cent corporate income tax rate would be cut to 47 per cent.

Individuals in the lowest bracket would receive 2 billion of the $11 billion of tax benefits, the CED's economists estimated. Tax payments by corporations and higher-bracket individuals would be reduced by $2 billion each.

Ladd Plumley, president of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, said reduction of tax rates and restraint in federal spending are next year's two top economics priorities.

In a Hartford, Conn., speech, Plumley renewed the chamber's call for reductions of $8 billion to $9 billion a year.

Those Pipes Never Thawed

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — James P. Forristal took a blowtorch to his frozen water pipes basement.

The flames shot up a wall into the attic and did about $200 damage.

The water pipes never did thaw.

New Treasurer

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Secretary of State Nancy Hall, who will become State Treasurer next month, said Thursday that Walter Needham will serve as chief administrative assistant treasurer. Needham, a native of Van Buren County, has been in the treasurer's office for 28 years as cashier and chief deputy.

U.S. Attacks All Red Plans for Disarming

By MICHAEL GOLDSMITH

GENEVA (AP) — The United States attacked all current Soviet disarmament proposals today as deliberate efforts to break up the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and undermine the security of the free world.

U.S. Ambassador Arthur H.
Dean told the 17-nation disarmament conference that the United States and its allies will never allow themselves to be lured into such a trap.

American nuclear delivery capacity and U.S. military bases around the fringes of the Soviet bloc are key elements of Western defense strategy which the West will not give up until the final stages of disarmament, Dean said.

The Soviet Union, he said, is wasting its time and blocking any start to general disarmament if it persists in its effort to "subvert the military and political position of the free world" with slanted proposals.

Dean said the Soviet demand for elimination of Western bases and nuclear striking power would "radically alter the world balance of military power in favor of the Soviet bloc during the very course and, indeed, rather close to the outset of disarmament."

"It should by now be clear to one and all that no amount of debate and casuistry—specious reasoning—will be able to convince the United States to abandon its allies in Europe and elsewhere to the mercies of the Soviet military machine," Dean said.

"We will not permit this situation to be used as a wedge to undermine Soviet proposals, into 15 isolated military compartments banned from joint activity and cooperation and separated into split North American and European districts."

"We will not permit this situation to arise while the mighty Soviet military machine remains essentially intact in its own part of Eastern Europe under a single unified command."

"This is especially true when the superiority of the Soviet Union alone in tanks and artillery over combined NATO forces is quite substantial."

Dean said the United States remains committed to the cooperative defense of the free world.

Brazil Plane Is Down, 50 Aboard

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP) — A Brazilian airliner with 50 persons aboard was reported missing today in the wilds of the interior State of Amazon.

The airline, Panair do Brazil, said the Constellation messenger it was ready to land six minutes before it was to put down at Manaus, deep in the Brazilian interior.

No further word was heard by the Manaus control tower, and Panair officials assumed the plane was down in a wild area.

Rice Acreage in State Set

WASHINGTON (AP) — Arkansas rice acreage allotment for 1963 was set at 439,019 acres Thursday by Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman.

Only Texas and Louisiana had larger allotments.
Freeman set the national acreage allotment at 1,818.1 acres and set average support prices at $4.71 per 100 pounds — the same support figure as in 1962.

A referendum by farmers to determine whether they want the marketing quota and price support program was set for Jan. 11. A two-thirds majority of voters will be needed to keep the support in effect.

U.S. Sends a New Satellite Out Into Space

By CHARLES STAFFORD

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — A new communications satellite named Relay soared through space today awaiting a call that would put it to work as a versatile link among nations of the Western world.

A Thor-Delta rocket, living up to its reputation for reliability, lifted the 172-pound communications satellite into the heavens Thursday night, just one second behind its scheduled 5:30 p. m. departure. It was the 14th straight successful mission for Thor-Delta.

Three hours after liftoff, as Relay completed its first circle of the globe, a spokesman for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration announced: "The orbit looks extremely close to nominal."

The exact path of Relay will be known after a careful study of telemetry data, sometime today, he said. A nominal—or planned—orbit called for a speed of 17,000 miles an hour, an orbital path ranging from 800 miles to 4,500 miles high, and one complete trip around the world every 3 hours and 4 minutes.

NASA's Robert Mackey said the first contact with Relay would be attempted by a NASA test station at Nettley, N. J. If its systems checked out favorably, the first communications experiments will be attempted by ground stations at Andover, Maine, and Goonhilly Downs, Great Britain.

Robert Gray, a NASA official, said the only interruption in the day-long countdown came in the early morning when workers at the launch pad had to pause to knock ice off the gantry. Relay rose into the heavens in the midst of Florida's worst cold spell in this century. The temperature at launch time was a windy 39 with the mercury falling.

Relay was launched at night so that it could speed over the horizon into the sunlight for maximum exposure during its first four orbits. This was necessary to allow the 8,215 solar cells lining its outer surface to soak up energy from the sun and convert it into electrical energy to charge the

Mariner No. 2 Speeds to Date With Venus

Bulletin

WASHINGTON (AP) — The space agency announced today that the Mariner space craft has made contact by radio with the planet Venus.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mariner 2, closing in for a look at the planet Venus, turned on its scanning instruments at 8:35 a.m.
Eastern Standard Time today on command from a tracking station at Goldstone, Calif., 3 million miles away.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration said at 9 a.m. that the gold- and silver-plated spacecraft acknowledged receipt of the command in six and one half minutes.

The order turned on two devices called radiometers which will scan the surface and the atmosphere of Venus for 42 minutes, starting minutes before the craft's closest approach to Venus.
Response to the command represented the greatest distance ever spanned by an ordering radio signal, and produced sighs of relief from U.S. scientists. Two built-in command signals designed to turn on the instruments had failed to do the job.

After signals from the spacecraft assured the Goldstone station that Mariner had received the order there was a delay of about 10 minutes while officials studied further signals to make sure the angle of direction of the radiometers was such that they would scan the planet.

sped toward its historic date with Venus this afternoon but so far a bull-in, timeclock had not switched on the spacecraft's instrument "eyes."

Neither of two stored command signals sent for early today to awaken Mariner's pair of radiom-eters.

Balloon Fails in Heights Expected

By HAROLD R. WILLIAMS

HOLLOMAN AIR FORCE BASE, N.M. (AP) — Space frontiers were pushed back today by a pair of pioneers in a Stargazer balloon.

The 200-foot diameter plastic balloon was to land at sunrise between Las Cruces and Deming about 50 miles west of its launching site here.

Air Force officials calculated the projected landing site from the balloon's position near midnight.

The balloon and its 4,800-pound gondola never reached its expected altitude of 87,000 feet. At 3 p.m. Thursday it reached its maximum—81,500 feet.

Cool night air caused the balloon to loose altitude gradually through the night. At 11 p.m. it was at 7,000 feet near the southwestern New Mexico town of Truth or Consequences.

Air Force Capt. Joe W. Kittin-ger Jr., 34, the pilot, reported the lower altitude apparently wasn't hampering experiments with the 12 1/2-inch telescope mounted atop the gondola.

William C. White, 40, civilian astronomer from China Lake, Calif., among other things sought to determine if stars twinkle when observed from above the earth's distorting atmosphere. The director of Project Stargazer, Dr. J.
Allen Hynek of Northwestern University, thinks the twinkle is lost between 70,000 and 80,000 feet.

The balloonists also tried to record the sound of the stars, described by Dr. Hynek as sounding like an empty coal truck on a bumpy road.

Other scheduled experiments included photographing the stars through the telescope; measuring air turbulence; measuring the brightness of stars and measuring water vapor at high altitudes.

sider a wedding ring a vicious

Excerpts From Letters You Would Like

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Excerpts from letters people would like to get but rarely do:
"Through a clerical error, our billing department undercharged you $87.63 on your last month's credit card account. But since it was our fault, and in con sideration of the fact Christmas is near, we'd just like you to forget the whole matter."

"As your landlord we wish to express our appreciation of you as a tenant these last 15 years. So we are installing a new refrigerator and stove in your apartment immediately, and beginning next month your rent will be reduced $35. Anytime your wife would like to have the place repainted—at our expense naturally—please let us know."

"It is my pleasure to inform you that Premier Khrushchev was deeply impressed by the letter you wrote to your newspaper outlining the 10 basic errors of the Kremlin.
He has asked me if you and your family would consent to be his guests for a two-month winter vacation in Switzerland, where he would like to meet you to discuss questions of international policy more fully. It will not be necessary to bring skis or overcoats as they will be provided by the Soviet government."

"Our publishing firm was sent a copy of your last talk to your local Rotary Club. It is our wish to include it in a new volume we are issuing to be called, 'Great Inspirational Messages of the 20th Century.' We are enclosing a check for $500 against advance royalties."

"I found the wallet you lost in a taxi. In going through it for identification papers I came across the photo of a girl with a fresh and exciting face—a girl I take to be your daughter. As a motion picture talent scout, I wonder if she would be interested in a film career? Although we could offer her only $750 a week to start, her future earnings would be—"

"Sir, you don't know me, but I know you. I am a bus driver. Last July 19 at 8:03 a.m. on Swamp-shore Drive you got on my bus and gave me a $5 bill. I gave you back 100 nickels in change.
My conscience has been bothering me ever since. It was a mean thing to do, and I want you to know it will never, never happen again."

"My wife, Jacqueline, and I are both delighted with your patriotic gift to the government of the golden oak chiffonier, circa 1904, left to you by your late Aunt Milly, and we will be glad to find a place for it in the White House.
In going through one of the drawers, I stumbled across 37 old shares of AT&T stock which your aunt apparently had hidden there.
I return it to you herewith."

New Head of Texarkana Bank

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP)—The election of Will H. Kelley, 46, president of the Waggoner National Bank of Vernon, Tex., as president of the State National Bank of Texarkana, Ark., was announced today.

Stuart Wilson, president of State National Bank's board of directors, made the announcement.
Kelley will take over his new position in Texarkana in mid-January.

Kelley is a veteran of 22 years of banking. He is a graduate of Texas A&M College and the School of Banking of the University of Wisconsin.

New Official From Hope to Take Office

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—New faces in three state constitutional offices will result in several personnel changes Jan. 15.

Kelly Bryant of Hope will become secretary of state, succeeding Mrs. Nancy Hall, who will become treasurer. Bruce Bennet will return to the attorney general's office after an absence of two years, succeeding Frank Holt.

Holt will become an associate justice of the Supreme Court. L. A.
Clayton, the current treasurer, said he is not ready to divulge his plans but he would not rejoin the Commercial National Bank in Little Rock, where he was working when he was appointed to succeed his late father.

Mrs. Hall said she would keep two of Clayton's top aides—Robert Mack and Walter Needham—and take Larry Curry from her present office to share top administrative duties in the treasurer's office.

Bryant plans to keep David Glover, Mrs. Hall's second in command, as his chief deputy.
Bennet said he was not ready to name his staff. He will have a chief assistant and seven other assistants and, if Legislative Council recommendations are approved by the General Assembly, the top aide will receive $8,600 a year and the other assistants $7,200, a raise of about $2,000 a year from current levels.

Holt kept Thorp Thomas, Dennis Horton and Russell Woods from Bennet's old staff when he replaced Bennett two years ago.
Jack Lessenberry is Holt's chief assistant and other aides include Russell Morton, Jack Holt Jr. and Milas Hale.
Thomas was a candidate against Bennet in last summer's primary.
Constitutional officers will be sworn in Jan. 15, the second day of the 1963 legislative session.

er named to the squad.

day to build a sewage collection system at Turrell. The company also submitted an apparent low bid of $33,836 to build a sewage treatment plant and pumping station. Tech-Neeks, Inc., of Little Rock submitted an apparent low bid of $28,195 for improvements to the city's water system. There were seven bidders on the three projects. The city took the bids under advisement. The improvements would be financed by a loan from the federal Housing and Home Finance Agency and the Water Pollution Control Commission, both of which must approve the bids.

Wesleyan Service Guild Meets
The Wesleyan Service Guild of the First Methodist Church met at the home of Mrs. Grady Williams on the Roston Road Monday, Dec. 10. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Elmer Brown and Mrs. Garland Medders.
A delicious pot luck supper was served to 14 members. Mrs. Elmer Brown presented the program "Sharing" in the form of a dialogue assisted by Mrs. Medders and Mrs. Williams. At the conclusion the group sang Christmas Carols.

Coming and Going
Mr. and Mrs. Billy Joe Gilbert. Mrs. Matt Bristow and Mrs. Pete Bonda spent last weekend in Oklahoma City, Okla., visiting Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Eddy.
Mr. and Mrs. Ed Russell of Lexington, Kentucky are here to spend Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Story and family.
Ronald Burns of Santa Susana, Calif., will be spending the Christmas holidays with Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Burns and family.

Paisley Daffodil Garden Club Meets
The Paisley Junior Daffodil Garden Club met Dec. 13 in the school auditorium. The president, Nancy Martindale called the meeting to order and Pam Faris led in the singing "Upon the Housetop" with Sherry Dickinson at the Piano. Sherry Dickinson, vice president, led the club pledge. Secretary Brenda Lester read the minutes of the last meeting.
The meeting was turned over to the leaders, Mrs. Westbrook and Mrs. Monts. Christmas corsages were made from material given each member and Christmas Carols were sung. 2 members brought their birdhouses they had made.
Refreshments were served and Christmas were sung.

Baker H. D. Club Has Christmas Party
On Friday night, Dec. 7 the Baker Home Demonstration Club held its Annual family Christmas party at the W.O.W. Hall.

This Pretty Frock For Little Angels is as practical as it is charming in easy-to-care-for "Everglaze" cotton satin by Everfast. Perky polka dots are high-fashion for the half-pint size.

A Smart Handful of Fashion is in the bag for Christmas when you gift her with this "Commuter" handbag. In natural, imported Heather. Spun and trimmed in soft leather, it has a large outside pocket. Best of all, it's a bag that's fashion-right any season with lots of room for personals and packages.

On the Pains was a beautiful arrangement of red berries, and greenery and red candles. The serving table was overlaid with white with berries and holly laid on top.

The group was called to order by the club president, Mrs. T. B. Fenwick. Sr. and the invocation was brought by Jesse Nusko. After a very enjoyable meal, Christmas Carols were sung under the direction of Mrs. J. W. White accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Ardell Clark. Gifts were then exchanged from under a lovely Christmas tree by Mrs. Lawrence Eastling.

Approximately 30 attended including Home Agent, Mrs. Betty Duncan and 2 daughters, and Mr. Marvin Watterson.

Lilac Garden Club Meets
Mrs. B. W. Edwards' home was the setting for the Lilac Garden Club Christmas luncheon Thursday, Dec. 13. Mrs. Leland Warmack was co-hostess for the potluck luncheon served amidst seasonal decorations such as candles and greenery.
After the meal, the president, Mrs. Guy Downing, had charge of a brief business session. Mrs. N. P. Nesbitt, secretary, made some reports. There was an exchange of gifts around the Christmas tree.

"How Christmas Traditions Started" was the subject of a talk made by Mrs. W. D. Cohea. All joined in singing "Silent Night" followed with prayer voiced by Mrs. Cohea.

Mrs. J. C. Carlton and Mrs. Gracie Clark, club guests, with 11 members assembled for the festive Yuletide occasion.

Duplicate Bridge
Going to Texarkana Wednesday night, Dec. 12 for the Winners Game of the Texarkana Duplicate Bridge Club at Collins Memorial were Luther Holammon, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Broach, Miss Elizabeth Bridwell, Mrs. J. C. Broyles, and Mike Kelly.

Luther Holammon and R. L. Broach were the second place team, North-South, and Mrs. R. L. Broach and Miss Elizabeth Bridwell teamed up to take fourth place, North-South.

Tuesday Club Meets
When Mrs. V. R. Herndon, Jr., entertained her bridge club on Tuesday night, Dec. 11, her home was filled with charming ornaments carrying out the theme of the season.

Besides the club members other guests were Mrs. Harold Brents, Mrs. Andy Andrews, Mrs. Don Westbrook, and Miss Mary Roy Moses. Mrs. C. R. Stuart, Jr., won the high score prize and the game prize. Mrs. Westbrook was second high.

Dessert and Santa Claus mugs of steaming coffee were served for refreshments.

Hopewell HD Club Meets
The beautiful, new, country home of Mrs. Ned Ray Purdie was the scene of a Christmas party for the Hopewell Home Demonstration Club on Thursday, Dec. 13. The pretty decorations throughout the home used the traditional colors of red and green.

The lovely, potluck luncheon was followed by a gift exchange. Mrs. L. D. Springer was a club guest. Mrs. Bettie Duncan, Home Demonstration Agent, also attended, and here were eight members present.

Mrs. J. H. Taylor will be hostess for the January meeting.

spacecraft's storage batteries. Relay's power supply was designed to permit communications tests for 1 hour, 40 minutes each day. Its designers predicted it would operate at maximum efficiency for the first 30 days in orbit, and render useful data for one year.

It is geared to relay television, radio, teletype, telephone, and high-speed data signals between Andover, Goshill Down and Pleumeboudou, France. A station at Fucino, Italy, not yet completed, will be able to receive its signals.

Stations at Nutley, N.J., and Rio de Janeiro were designed to exchange voice and teletype tests, with the Brazilian station also passing along these tests to the Italian station.

The Saturday schedule calls for news stories to be exchanged between the United States and Europe. Similar transmissions are planned Monday between the United States and South America. If all goes well, the public will witness an intercontinental Christmas program Wednesday televised through Relay. The program, carried by all three U.S. television networks, will feature yuletide preparations in 11 nations on the North American and European continents.

Relay is kin to Telstar, the orbiting switchboard which went dead in late November after four highly successful months of transmitting television pictures, radio and telephone conversations between the United States and Europe. But its parentage is different.

Telstar was privately built and financed by American Telephone and Telegraph Co. Relay was a NASA satellite, built under government contract by Radio Corporation of America.

Gotham Goldstripe And Kayser Hosiery For Her

DOROTHY DIX

Her Idol Has Feet of Clay

By Helen Worden Erskine

Dear Helen: If anything, I love my second husband more than my first and he knows it. That's the trouble. As far as the material things of life go, he's the answer to a woman's prayer. But when it comes to the golden magic out of which romantic dreams are spun, he's zero plus.

We are buying a beautiful home in the finest residential section of this town. Our four children want for nothing. Our friends point to us as the personification of a happy marriage. So far I've managed to preserve the illusion but any day the truth about my husband and this other woman may out. She is not the first.

Two years ago another woman broke my heart. My husband contritely went with me to our pastor and, as a consequence, remained faithful for two years. Then I ran into this woman my family had known since I was a child. She's 49, I am 39 and my husband 37. We all met at a party and before you could say Jack Robinson, she had cornered him.

When she sent him out for more drinks he went like a lamb and she—like a werewolf—glided after him. They were gone over an hour. It was pouring rain which made his absence all the more conspicuous. He told people they drove to the liquor store in his car. That makes me fear the worst for he has no car. I have never been unfaithful to him. How could he be faithless to me? —Crushed

Dear Crushed: The very quality which attracts you to your husband—his charm—makes him attractive to other women. Far from being zero-plus where romance is concerned, I'd say he had an oversupply.

He sounds like a gullible, wanting-to-believe little boy in the hands of designing women. Your problem, of course, is to persuade him to quit dallying on the primrose path. The surest way to accomplish this is to recognize his weakness and turn it to an advantage by romancing with him yourself.

Check on the charm schools in your town. Join a dancing and

Will Transfer

MOBILE, Ala. (AP)—James M. Van Hoose Jr., manager of the Camden, Ark., mill of the International Paper Company's Southern Kraft Division, will be transferred to division headquarters here, it was announced Saturday. H. Minge Reed Jr., division coordinator of maintenance, will be promoted and transferred from Mobile to Camden as mill manager, and Virgil F. Crabtree Jr., production superintendent of the company's Natchez, Miss., mill, will be promoted.

Department Went About Duties

MOBILE, Ala. (AP)—The Mobile street cleaning department went about its usual duties of washing down the streets, disregarding the thermometer's slide to a low of 19 degrees Tuesday night.

The result: a slick sheet of ice on some streets in this city near the Gulf of Mexico.

public speaking class to give you poise and assurance. Deliberately change your personality to one which will satisfy your husband's craving for adventure. Create the illusion of romance. Provide him excitement through planned diversions, cleverly acting a part and doing the unexpected.

Men, like children, thrill to surprises. Analyze the women who attract him. Go them one better. Be the purple patch in his gray life and, in the doing, you'll have fun as well as win your man back.

Dear Helen: I was operated upon by a famous surgeon in whom I had great faith. Everything went fine until the post-operative check-up. I sensed trouble when his nurse said, smiling, "You are going to be like Gypsy Rose Lee."

I was no more seated than the doctor began squeezing my knee. I cried from shame. He laughed, said I was irresistible and to forget it. Why, when I'd done nothing to invite such a comment or actions? I left his office feeling like a street-walker. Must women patients expect these amorous advances from otherwise competent doctors? —Faithful Reader

Dear Faithful: A tap on the knee isn't rape. Why hang your head in shame? Dismiss the memory with a laugh. You're oversensitive. Any reputable doctor who made a practice of giving lady patients amorous love taps would soon be drummed out of the profession.

Dear Helen: I'm a 17-year-old high school senior who's found his life-mate. But her parents and mine frown upon our romance for three reasons: (1) difference in nationality, (2) religious opposites, (3) we are too young to be serious.

Yet both our mothers were married at 18. Nationality is no problem. If she were a Hotentot I should still love her for what she is, not for what her parents were. The religious issue is of course the biggest problem. But we've already settled it by agreeing that each has a right to think as he or she pleases, provided we don't force our opinions upon one another. All we ask is that things be allowed to take their natural course. Already our parents have been warned that any attempt to separate us will only bring me and my girl closer together. What should we do now? —M. N.

Dear M.: Stand your ground, but make sure you have thought out the whole problem. How about finances? Prove your sincerity of purpose to your parents by aiming for the stars. Finish school at the top of your class. Know where you are going by channeling all your studies toward your chosen profession. And, above all, provide for the responsibilities of marriage by saving toward it as you go along.

Check with the school employment bureau for weekend jobs. Send a stamped, addressed envelope for my leaflet, "Hasty Marriage."

Send your problem to Helen Worden Erskine. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and address her in care of this newspaper.

4,2 Million Broilers Start

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas producers started 4,200,000 broiler chicks during the week ended Dec. 8, the Crop Reporting Service of the Agriculture Department said today.

This is about the same as the figure for the previous week. Of the total placements in the state, 3,650,000 chicks were hatched in Arkansas and 580,000 came from other states.

There were 150,000 broiler chicks shipped out of the state during the week. The estimated total of 5,027,000 eggs set for broiler-type chicks in Arkansas during the week was seven per cent below the previous week.

Porkers Wilt, Meet Defeat at Tulsa

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The Arkansas Razorbacks wilted momentarily and Tulsa's Hurricane blitzed to a 76-66, basketball victory here Thursday night.

The defeat set Arkansas' record at 5-9 (2-2), and Tulsa nailed down its fourth straight victory against no losses.

James King and Carlos Grijalva boomed Tulsa from a five point deficit midway through the second half into a quick eight-point lead.

With those two popping the nets, Tulsa racked 13 points with-out Arkansas hitting one. The score went from 47-42, with Arkansas leading, to 45-47, Tulsa leading.

When the Porkers did shake off the cold spell, Tulsa couldn't be overtaken, despite double-figure scoring by Jim Wilson, Larry Hogue and Tommy Boyer.

The Razorbacks led 38-35 at halftime. The lead changed hands nine times in the first half. It changed hands only once in the second period—when Tulsa took it from Arkansas at 43-47.

SMU Downs LSU, Breaks Loss Streak

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Southern Methodist made some changes in its line-up, got an opponent on its home court and broke a 3-game losing streak with an 83-68 victory over Louisiana State for an important Southwest Conference inter-sectional basketball victory Thursday night.

The return to form by the Methodists indicated they were not being overruled when they were picked as championship contenders before the season started.

Other conference teams didn't do so well. Arkansas took a 76-78 drubbing from Tulsa and Texas Christian was soundly whipped by Michigan 82-60.

These results made the inter-sectional record 8-14 for the campaign to date.

Southern Methodist had trouble with Louisiana State for a half but opening the second period the Methodists went on a scoring spurge never were behind the rest of the way.

Jim Smith, one of the sophomores inserted by Coach Doc Hayes in an effort to give his team a pickup, came through with 11 points and 12 rebounds.

Michigan led Texas Christian by 1 points at the half and sent the bulge as high as 25 the rest of the way as a fast break and harassing defense held the Horned Frogs at bay.

Arkansas made a fight of it for a half against Tulsa, leading 38-35 at intermission. But Jim King and Carlos Grijalva went on a scoring spurge that overcame the Razorbacks with 12 minutes left to play.

King and Tommy Boyer of Arkansas led the scoring with 18 points apiece.

Attendance in Football Shows Gain

NEW YORK (AP) — Perennial champion Ohio State maintained its position as the biggest attraction in college football during the 192 season but honors for the biggest proportionate gain went to the Mississippi College Choclaws.

The Buckeyes of the Big Ten Conference, who lost an average of one fan per game in 192, finished on top by clicking 497,44 fans through the turnstiles in six games—an average of 82,941. In 191, Ohio State drew 414,712 in five games for an average of 82,942.

The Choctaws of Clinton, Miss., quadrupled their average 192 attendance. The boost from 3,25 a game to 13,125 was made possible by a turnout of 40,25 for an opening game international contest with the University of Mexico.

The Buckeyes headed a list of 20 with only Illinois and Indiana failing to make it. Michigan State was No. 2 with a 8,142 average—a gain of 11,88 per game. LSU

Emerson Takes Bobcats Out of Tournament

By CARTER HARDAGE

Thursday night at the Magnolia invitational tournament, Emerson edged out Hope by a close 54-48 score.

The Cats, although they had a 6-5 edge over Emerson at the First Quarter's end, fell behind 23-18 at the half. But the Third quarter was what really hurt Emerson racked up 19 points while the Cats only got 9, so it was 42-27 at the end of the third quarter. The Bobcats put forth a mighty effort, but Emerson's 15 point, advantage was too much to make up, and the Cats went down in a 54-48 defeat. High scorer for the Hope was again Dan Jones with 18 points. Then came Murphy 12, Porterfield 8, McLarty 4, and Russell, Purdie, and Burnett with 2 each. Butler was high for Emerson with 21.

Tonight Spring Hill visits Hope to play the Senior Girls, "B" Boys and Junior Girls. This is the Junior Girls first game this season so why not come out to Jones Field House and see them?

SW Teams Won't Set Many Records

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

DALLAS (AP)—Southwest Conference basketball teams obviously won't cut much ice nationally but the family squabble should be hot enough to melt anything.

Texas, with speed, height and depth, is the logical championship choice but there's seldom any logic in a Southwest Conference basketball campaign. By mid-season they'll be beating each other on a round-robin basis, if the showing in the inter-sectional schedule is any indication.

The conference members have been losing games against outside foes in a 3-to-1 ratio but look about equal in strength when it comes to playing each other.

Only Texas A&M is undefeated in inter-sectional competition but the Aggies haven't played them as tough as the others.

Even Texas Tech, the outfit that won one championship and tied for another in the last two campaigns, is showing well enough to be given consideration as a "spoiler" although the Techs are winless in four games. They have played most of them close, however, against competition like Nebraska, Florida, Memphis State and New Mexico.

Southern Methodist, Top-champion last winter but losing to Tech in the playoff for an NCAA spot, isn't doing any better than most of the others along the inter-sectional trail, but the Methodists will be expected to be in the thick of the fight when they start playing their colleagues.

Arkansas looks like a solid contender. There's much experience in the Ozarks where Coach Glen Rose has four of his starters back, headed by the talented Tommy Boyer.

The Razorbacks were the last to lose a game this season when they took a 46-45 tumble before Oklahoma State Tuesday night. They boasted victories over Kansas and Missouri.

Texas has a towering team with seven lettermen, four of whom are seniors. There are three 6-foot-8 boys and a couple of 6-foot-7 performers. The Longhorns also have what many tall teams don't have—good speed.

Texas A&M may be the team to beat for the title. There are seven lettermen and 7-foot Lewis Qualls is showing indications of living up to early expectations. This is his final season. Jerry Windham, with 82 points, leads the highest scoring team in the league.

Rice, however, has the top individual scorer and rebounder in Kendall Rhine, who has rolled up more than 100 points in the Owls' five games to date. Trouble is, Rice doesn't have enough experience to go with Rhine for a well-rounded team.

Baylor is improved but still will have to depend too much on sophomores. It's the same with Texas Christian. But both could do some upsetting down the stretch.

With so many sophomores and inexperience, the league can expect to go only one way as the season progresses—up.

was third with a .284 average, gaining 2.33 per game.

The gains reflected a general over-all increase as college football attendance passed the 21-million mark for the first time in 192, an average gain of 2 per cent despite the fact six fewer teams played the sport.

Climbing for the ninth consecutive year, the total attendance for 10 colleges and universities in 1962 was 21,227,12 as compared to the 1961 total of 20,77,04.

Miami Team in New York for Gotham

GOTHAM BOWL SPORTS
NEW YORK (AP)—The Miami football team is in town and the Nebraska's Cornhuskers are due in today. Some 20,000 tickets reportedly have been sold. A television deal finally has been completed, albeit for a taped showing, 60—it finally can be reported for certain that there will be a Gotham Bowl game Saturday at Yankee Stadium.

It took a lot of doing, too, on the part of executive director Bob Curran and his staff, with an assist from Mayor Robert Wagner who personally guaranteed the expense money demanded by the schools before they would permit their athletes to set foot on Yankee Stadium terrain.

Miami reportedly has been guaranteed $30,000 in expense money and Nebraska $35,000. How much more each school will get may never be known. A Gotham Bowl spokesman said all the proceeds from television as well as the gate receipts, after the March of Dimes takes out its share, will be handed over to the two schools.

Picking the Weekend Pro Winners

By JACK CLARY

NEW YORK (AP) — The San Francisco 49ers and Cleveland Browns meet Saturday afternoon in San Francisco in a National Football League game that will have no bearing on any race, but which will be for the public's entertainment over national television (CBS, 1:30 p.m., PST).

Sunday, though, the Green Bay Packers, 12-1, play the Los Angeles Rams in Los Angeles, needing only a victory or tie to sew up their third straight Western Conference crown and get a second straight title game date against the New York Giants.

In the American League, Houston can nail down its third straight Eastern title Saturday in New York against the Titans. If the Oilers lose, they still could back in if the Oakland Raiders, losers of 19 straight, upset or tie the second-place Boston Patriots in Oakland.

This week's final picks:

NFL
San Francisco over Cleveland—49ers flying quarterback formation should be good for one more game.

St. Louis over Philadelphia—Cardinals awakened last week with big 52-20 win over Dallas and have easier foe in Eagles.

Baltimore over Minnesota—Colts need victory to finish at .500 but it will be an offensive battle with Johnny Unitas pitting passes against Frank Tarkenton of Vikings.

Pittsburgh over Washington — Steelers just too strong again for Redskins, are worn out and battered after surprise showing this year. Lou Michaels' toe may decide for Pittsburgh.

New York over Dallas—Giants will get a good test from Cowboys' big offense, but Ralph Guglielmi showed Eastern champions have little to worry about when Y.A. Tittle isn't running the club.

Chicago over Detroit—Lions will be playing for their lives but Bears are a sound ball club with Billy Wade in groove as passer.

Green Bay over Los Angeles—No chance of an upset for the business-like Packers who will shoot the works to nail down Western title.

AFL
Houston over New York—Oilers old pros take no chances of missing title as George Blanda and Charlie Tolar too much for tired Titans.

Oakland over Boston — Raiders get edge on Pats with desire to win at least once during season. Boston may be down if game doesn't decide title chances.

Dallas over San Diego—Texans Len Dawson, Abner Haynes and Co., get a good test before title game.

Burns Fatal to Negro Child

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A 5-year-old Negro girl died in a hospital here Tuesday of burns suffered when her clothes caught fire from a heater in her home at Sparkman, Ark.

She was Gwendolene Mae Summerville, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Summerville.

She ran out of the house with her clothing aflame in an effort to reach her mother, who was visiting a neighbor. She was treated at an Arkadelphia hospital, then moved to a Little Rock hospital where she died.

The house did not catch fire.

Decision on Election Soon

NEWPORT, Ark. (AP) — Judge Andrew Ponder is expected to reach a decision soon on a contested election in which Newport residents apparently voted down a proposed switch to the city manager form of government.

The city voted 888 to 867 to retain its present mayor-council form of government in an election held Aug. 21.

City manager proponents contested the election, and pro mayor council forces followed suit. City manager advocates challenged 87 votes, and the mayor-council forces challenged 96 votes.

Both sides concluded testimony Tuesday in Jackson Circuit Court. Ponder said he would read the list of votes determined as illegal next Friday. He then will have ballot boxes brought in to determine how any illegal votes were cast. Results of the total votes for each side will be changed accordingly.

eters did the job, U.S. space officials reported.

A third signal is set for 9 a. m. eastern Standard Time. If this doesn't work, an earth signal from the Goldstone, Calif., tracking station will be flashed to the space messenger.

The spider-like Mariner carries the world's hopes for the first close-up look at a planet—a look which may solve the mystery of whether even plant or bacterial life can exist on the cloud-veiled sister of earth.

The 12-foot tall, 447-pound spacecraft is due to pass about 21,000 miles from Venus at 3:01 p.m.

This will be the climax of a long and wondrous journey that began at the Cape Canaveral, Fla., launching pad 109 days ago.

At that instant, Mariner will have traveled 182 million miles and will be 3 million miles from earth.

The two radiometers, which so far have just been along for the ride, are designed to function only during the approach to Venus.

They were set to be turned on automatically by stored signals. But the first two—at 2:21 a.m. and 5:41 a.m.—failed to go off.

National Aeronautics and Space Administration officials said the reason they wanted them on early was to check if they're working and to take readings for comparisons when Mariner zeroes in on Venus.

Scientists on both U.S. coasts, their fingers crossed against any last-hour difficulty, are ready to eavesdrop on Mariner's 42 minutes of special near-Venus reports.

Coded signals will be relayed by telephone from the Jet Propulsion Laboratory's Goldstone, Calif., tracking station and amplified over a public address system at a National Aeronautics and Space Administration news conference here.

The U.S. Information Agency, plans to send reports on Mariner's progress to 107 posts around the globe in 38 languages. Later there will be a documentary film of Mariner's progress for world-wide theatrical showings.

Mariner's journey got off to a bumpy start. Due to a somewhat faulty performance of the 10-story high Atlas-Agena B complex that launched her, she began her trip on a greatly off-target course.

That error was soon substantially corrected. Since then, though, Mariner has been beset by various other temporary troubles—some of them still a mystery.

While scientists expect to get a check on the condition of the spacecraft itself, they say it will be "at least weeks and possibly months" before they'll be able to say what Mariner actually found out about Venus.

ARE YOUR DEBTS IN BALANCE?

Many farmers have their short-term debts completely out-of-balance with their long-term obligations. Good farm management requires that operating or short-term credit be kept in balance with capital or long-term credit. Proper balance enables orderly retirement of all obligations without repayment being a burden.

Thousands of farmers have found that a LAND BANK LOAN provides the key to a balanced debt load. It could well be the answer to your credit problem.

Visit us today. See how our services can be profitable to you. There is no obligation.
